FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Presents: Guest Author Emmett Grogan

Local author Emmett Grogan will join Oshawa Public Libraries at the Jess Hann Branch, located at 199 Wentworth St. W., to discuss the influence of several notable Canadian authors on contemporary Canadian literature on May 25 at 6:00 PM.

The discussion will begin with Grogan's own recently published debut novel, Twelve Stories, which chronicles events in the life of a teenage rebel from Nipigon, Ontario, who escapes childhood trauma and poverty to eventually scam his way into the Canadian contemporary art market in the 1990s.

Twelve Stories is currently featured on the craving CanLit 2022 page of the Scotiabank Giller Prize website.

Register to attend Emmett's presentation about Canadian literature at oshawalibrary.ca/signup.
