

Centre for Equitable Library Access (CELA) Declaration Form

Date: _____

CELA is a non-profit organization that provides accessible books for free through Canadian public libraries.

Who qualifies for the CELA Program?

Anyone who is print disabled because of blindness, visual impairment, physical disability and/or learning disability in accordance with the definition provided for “perceptual disability” in Section 32. (1) of the Canadian Copyright Act qualifies.

“Perceptual Disability” means a disability that prevents or inhibits a person from reading or hearing a literary, musical, dramatic or artistic work in its original format, and includes such a disability resulting from:

- 1) Severe or total impairment of sight or hearing or the inability to focus or move one's eyes.
- 2) The inability to hold or manipulate a book.
- 3) An impairment relating to comprehension.

Libraries will need to ensure that access to the CELA Program is provided only to patrons who have a perceptual disability.
